

SUMMER CAMP 2007 IN REVIEW

The reviews concerning the 2007 summer camp were complimentary each of the four weeks of camp. The ratings concerning staff services can best describe the program experienced. As you can see below, Scout leaders had an opportunity to rate staff services from excellent to unsatisfactory. An excellent rating was assigned a value of four, a good rating a value of three, a satisfactory rating a value of two, and an unsatisfactory rating a value of one.

Staff Services	Excellent(4)	Good(3)	Satisfactory(2)	Unsatisfactory(1)
<hr/>
Enthusiasm/Attitude
Appearance
Helpfulness
Friendliness

A perfect score, with each Scout leader rating staff services as excellent is 4.0. 180 Scout leaders participated in this survey.

Week	One	Two	Three	Four	Overall
Enthusiasm/Attitude	3.74	3.98	3.63	3.89	3.81
Appearance	3.72	3.88	3.70	3.73	3.76
Helpfulness	3.62	3.90	3.48	3.76	3.69
Friendliness	3.75	3.93	3.65	3.73	3.77

As with staff services, Scout leaders had an opportunity to evaluate food services from excellent to unsatisfactory. A numerical value was assigned to each response ranging from 4 for excellent to 1 for unsatisfactory.

Food Service	Excellent(4)	Good(3)	Satisfactory(2)	Unsatisfactory(1)
<hr/>
Quality
Menu
Service

A perfect score, with each Scout leader rating food services as excellent, is 4.0. 180 Scout leaders participated in this survey.

Week	One	Two	Three	Four	Overall
Quality	3.08	3.38	3.13	3.62	3.30
Menu	3.15	3.14	3.13	3.54	3.24
Service	3.33	3.79	3.35	3.81	3.57

Finally, Scout leaders were asked to rate their overall summer camp experience on a ten-point scale.

Unsatisfactory ----- 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 ----- Excellent

Week	One	Two	Three	Four	Overall
Overall Experience	8.02	8.81	8.28	8.86	8.49

What Scout leaders say about Camp Pirtle

Troop 8787 - Austin, TX – Capitol Area Council – “I rate your staff second to none because of their enthusiasm and because most of them were older and had more maturity and better instructional abilities than other camps.” – Rick Carlin, Scout Leader/Week 1

Troop 469 – Wills Point, TX – Circle Ten Council – “Wow, most people do not eat this good at home!” – Kerry Cartier, Scoutmaster/Week 1

Troop 13 – Angleton, TX – Bay Area Council – “Greatest staff of any camp I have been to.” – Lee Clifton, Scoutmaster/Week 1

Troop 109 - Silsbee, TX – Three Rivers Council - “The best Scout camp I have been to. Very well run & organized. Good facility as well.” – Robert Gautreaux, Scout Leader/Week 1

Troop 311 - Gilmer, TX – East Texas Area Council - “Staff did a fantastic job in maintaining a high level of energy and excitement.” – Doug Murphy, Scoutmaster/Week 1

Troop 419 – Pasadena, TX – Sam Houston Area Council – “The staff was great! The Founders Lodge was good for the adults!” – Chuck Rosenbaum, Scout Leader/Week 2

Troop 125 – Bridge City, TX – Three Rivers Council – “Good all around spirit – the best of any camp I have been to.” – Grant Gilson, Scout Leader/Week 2

Troop 442 – Pearland, TX – Bay Area Council – “Great staff! Letting the adults shoot was fun. I had so much to participate in that I didn’t have time to go fishing.” – Ed Hetsko, Scout Leader/Week 2

Troop 351 – Lindale, TX – East Texas Area Council – “The staff bent over backwards to provide everything we needed.” – Barry Herrera, Scout Leader/Week 2

Troop 333 – Tyler, TX – East Texas Area Council – “Camp was a great beginning experience for our new Scouts. Lots of things to do for the older Scouts.” – Anne Munoz, Scout Leader/Week 3

Troop 1195 – Sugarland, TX – Sam Houston Area Council – “Some of the best camp food I have had.” – Ben Simiskey, Scout Leader/Week 3

Troop 232 – Waxahachie, TX – Circle Ten Council – “The facilities are adequate for men, women, and boys; the merit badge program is excellent, and the staff is great.” – D. Patera, Scout Leader/Week 3

Troop 64 – Dayton, TX – Three Rivers Council – “Good atmosphere, great service, and great food.” – Michael J. Smith, Scout Leader/Week 4

Troop 65 – Gonzales, LA – Istrouma Area Council – “Food was great! All you could eat.” – Jeff Lambert, Scout Leader/Week 4

Troop 170 – Woden, TX – East Texas Area Council – “Good atmosphere and friendly staff.” – Delissa Johnson, Scout Leader/Week 4

Troop 182 – Elgin, TX – Capitol Area Council – “Great attitude even for the fourth week!” – Robert Chambers, Scout Leader/Week 4